Doba Recognized in UVEF "Top 25 Under 5" Competition

Leading product sourcing company honored for growing success in the 5-year-old and under company category

13 July 2006 | Orem, Utah

OREM, Utah – Doba™, the leader in product sourcing solutions, was honored today in the Utah Valley Entrepreneurial Forum's (UVEF) "Top 25 Under 5" competition. The field of more than 200 Utah-based businesses was narrowed down to the top 25, with the ultimate winners announced at an award luncheon hosted by UVEF in Provo, Utah.

"Our growth during the past two years has been phenomenal," Doba CEO Jeremy Hanks said. "We are pleased with this recognition and honored to be included among so many outstanding Utah companies."

The "Top 25 Under 5" award honors Utah's emerging companies in business and entrepreneurial achievement. Competing companies are judged based on profit, growth, equity funding, job creation and job quality. Awards were presented to the highest achieving five-year-, four-year-, three-year-, two-year- and one-year-old companies.

Doba is the leader in product sourcing services for small businesses and web entrepreneurs. Available as an annual subscription, Doba provides members with the ability to browse over a quarter of a million product listings in a virtual warehouse, select products to sell, and fulfill the order by shipping directly to the buyer. By aggregating product distribution and purchasing power through a single connection point, Doba creates unique opportunities for suppliers and retailers alike. Doba also offers a wide variety of educational tools, features, and services that enable members to sell products online quickly, safely, and conveniently.
